

A GENERAL ATTACK

The Third One Began on Port Arthur by the Japanese on October 24.

SHELLS FIRED POWDER MAGAZINE

Portions of the Town Caught Fire, the Conflagration Continuing the Whole Day Before Extinguished.

A Successful Attack on the Russian Outposts at Wumingsun and Two Unsuccessful Counter Attacks Made By Muscovites.

Che Foo, Oct. 31.—The third general attack on Port Arthur began October 24, according to unimpeachable authority, and on October 26 Japanese shells set fire to the only smokeless powder magazine in Port Arthur. Portions of the town caught fire, the conflagration continuing the whole day. On October 26 the Japanese captured the Russian trenches on the slope of Ripling mountain, also a fortified position protecting that fortress. The Japanese consider the progress of the siege to be highly satisfactory.

Tokio, Oct. 31.—A report from the Manchurian army headquarters received Sunday records a successful night attack against the Russian outposts at Wumingsun and two unsuccessful counter attacks made by the Russians. The report is as follows:

"On the night of October 28 a small force of the enemy attacked Wumingsun mountain, but was immediately repulsed. October 29 at 3 o'clock in the morning a detachment of infantry was dispatched from the center army against Wumingsun. The enemy was surprised and the houses occupied by the enemy were set on fire. Wumingsun is located midway between the outposts of both armies. Using the place as a base, the enemy made frequent night attacks against our outposts. On the night of October 28 a force of the enemy of unknown strength attacked an eminence near Santaokangzu, but was immediately repulsed."

Mukden, Oct. 31.—The attack by the Japanese on the Buddhist Temple hill on October 27 led to sharp fighting. The Japanese artillery played on the position from early in the morning rendering the trenches untenable, shells and shrapnel sweeping everything and demolishing all the shelters. Two machine guns with the battalion defending the hill were smashed and disabled, but the defenders carried off the remains of the guns when they were forced to retire. The Japanese infantry attack under cover of the bombardment was made in close order. There was desperate hand-to-hand fighting in the trenches followed by a counter attack with the bayonet. The Japanese finally gained the hill, but were unable to hold it in the face of the deadly Russian artillery fire.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The military situation has not yet developed anything of great importance, though the fight at the Buddhist Temple hill on October 27 appears to have been decidedly a heavy engagement. It probably indicates that final moves on both sides are now occurring preparatory to another long and serious battle.

They Presented Sir Thomas Lipton With a Loving Cup.

London, Oct. 31.—Sir Thomas Lipton, in visiting the cruiser Olympia, of the United States European squadron Sunday, to thank the crew for the loving cup which they presented to him Saturday, said he had received many trophies, but among them all this cup would occupy a prominent position; but, he added, significantly, there is one spot which he is keeping vacant.

STRAITS OF GIBRALTAR.

Four Russian Torpedo Boat Destroyers Passed Through Sunday.

Gibraltar, Oct. 31.—Four Russian torpedo boat destroyers passed through the straits, eastward bound, Sunday forenoon, shadowed by a British torpedo boat. The British Mediterranean squadron has been signalled 20 miles distant. The British mobilization maneuvers at Gibraltar were brought to a close Sunday. This is regarded as indicating that no apprehension is entertained of further complications with Russia.

THE JAPANESE MINISTER.

An Operation For Appendicitis Was Performed On Him.

New York, Oct. 31.—An operation for appendicitis was performed on Japanese Minister Kogoro Takahira in a hotel in this city Sunday. The case is said to be a serious one, and at Washington have been summoned to the minister's bedside.

Mr. Takahira arrived here from Washington Friday night and immediately after being assigned to a room at the hotel complained of illness and asked that a physician be sent for. The physician found the minister suffering much pain, but remedies were administered which eased his sufferings and allowed him to pass the remainder of the night comfortably. Saturday, however, the minister could retain no food and this with other symptoms caused the physician to believe that the case was one of appendicitis, and Sunday when it was positively diagnosed as such, an immediate operation was decided upon.

The operation on Minister Takahira was performed between 3 and 4 o'clock by Dr. William T. Bull, who issued the following bulletin at 7:45 o'clock Sunday night:

"The patient was taken ill Saturday morning with appendicitis. Symptoms of peritonitis rapidly supervened and an operation was decided upon by Drs. Bull, Delafield and Shady. The operation was done early in the afternoon, since which time his condition has been satisfactory, although he cannot be pronounced out of danger for two or three days. At present the outlook is favorable."

Dr. Bull announced that bulletins would be issued every three hours for several days.

KING CHRISTIAN.

The North Sea Affair Caused Him the Deepest Anxiety.

Copenhagen, Oct. 31.—It is learned that the North Sea affair caused the deepest anxiety to King Christian of Denmark, who declared that should an Anglo-Russian war result it would be the cause of his death. The dowager empress of Russia promised her father, the king, to use her greatest efforts to prevent a conflict. It is stated that hundreds of dispatches were exchanged between the dowager empress and the Queen of Great Britain during the week and that the two sisters rendered great service in the cause of peace.

A CIRCULAR NOTE.

Secretary Hay Carried Out President's Instructions Relative to Second Peace Conference.

IT WAS SENT TO ALL THE POWERS.

The Rights and Duties of Neutrals in Time of War Demands Further Attention.

It Endorses the Project of a General System of Arbitration and the Establishment of an International Peace Congress.

Washington, Oct. 31.—In a circular note Secretary Hay has carried out the president's instructions relative to proposing a second Hague conference. The note not only contemplates the reassembling of The Hague conference for the consideration of questions specially mentioned by the original conference as demanding further attention, such as the rights and duties of neutrals; the inviolability of private property in naval warfare and the bombardment of ports by naval force, but goes further by practically endorsing the project of a general system of arbitration treaties and the establishment of an international congress to meet periodically in the interests of peace. The issue of the call while the present war is in progress is justified by the fact that the first Hague conference was called before our treaty of peace with Spain was concluded.

The note, among other things, says: Among the broader general questions at The Hague conference in 1899 affecting the rights and justice of the relation of sovereign states, which were then relegated to a future conference, were: The rights and duties of neutrals; the inviolability of private property in naval warfare, and the bombardment of ports, towns and villages by a naval force. The other matters mentioned in the final act take the form of suggestions for consideration by interested governments.

The three points mentioned cover a large field. The first, especially, touching the rights and duties of neutrals, is of universal importance. Its rightful disposition affects the interests and well being of all the world. The neutral is something more than an on-looker. His acts of omission or commission may have an influence—indirect but tangible—on a war actually in progress, while on the other hand he may suffer from the exigencies of the belligerents. It is this phase of warfare which deeply concerns the world at large. Efforts have been made, time and again, to formulate rules of action applicable to its more material aspects, as in the declarations of Paris. As recently as the 28th of April, of this year, the congress of the United States adopted resolutions reading thus:

"Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled that it is the sense of the congress of the United States, that it is desirable in the interest of uniformity of action by the maritime states of the world in time of war, that the president endeavor to bring about an understanding among the principal maritime powers with a view of incorporating into the permanent law of civilized nations the principle of the exemption of all private property at sea, not contraband of war, from a capture or destruction by belligerents."

HORRIBLE MURDER.

Man Thrown Into a Coke Oven By Two Men and Cremated.

Masontown, Pa., Oct. 31.—Steve Borok, employed at the Bessemer coke plant, reported that late Saturday night he saw a man thrown into a coke oven and cremated. Borok says he saw three men scuffling on top of an oven and a moment later saw two of them jump to the ground and disappear in the darkness. Just then flames issued from the oven as though fuel had been tossed into it. Coroner Hagen Sunday ordered the oven drawn when blackened human bones and teeth were found. The murdered man and his assailants are unknown.

Nunn Clark, white, and William Howard, colored, in the murder and robbery of John W. Burden, near Millersburg, one week ago last Friday night. The trial of Clark was Saturday postponed until Thursday. The Negro arrested Saturday tells what is believed to be a straight story of his movements on the night of the murder, and it is believed he will clear himself, but at the same time be an important witness for the commonwealth against both Clark and Howard.

WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Twenty-One Buildings in Corlith, Ky., Destroyed.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The town of Corlith, with a population of about 350, 25 miles north of here on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, was wiped out by fire. Twenty-one buildings were destroyed at a loss of $50,000. Only three business buildings, including the Farmers' bank, were saved. Not a house was left standing in Main street. The fire started from a defective flue in a private residence. Except for a few private cisterns, there is not sufficient water in the town to water a horse, so complete had been the drought. The fire department of Beattyville responded.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—George Brown, a Negro, while in a drunken stupor, knocked over a lamp Sunday night, which set fire to the house and burned him to a crisp. Just as the fire started a neighbor opened the door and tried to put out the flames, but Brown pushed him out and locked himself in. The cottage was destroyed when the fire department reached the scene and his body was burned to a crisp.

PUPILS IN SCHOOLS

The Report of the Commissioner of Education For the Fiscal Year Made Public.

IT SHOWS 16,009,361 SCHOLARS.

This Is About 20 Per Cent of the Entire Population of the United States.

The Total Cost of the System Is Given as $251,457,625, An Increase of $16,000,000 Over That of the Previous Year.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The report of the commissioner of education for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, made public Sunday by the secretary of the interior, shows that 16,009,361 pupils, or 20 per cent. of the entire population of the country, attended the public schools during that year. As compared with the previous six years, this percentage shows a slight decrease in the number of pupils as compared with the total population. The total cost of the public school system is given as $251,457,625. This is an increase of $16,000,000 over the previous year. It amounts to $2.15 per capita of total population, and $22.75 per capita per pupil.

Since 1870, the proportion of male teachers has decreased from 39 per cent. of the entire number to 26 per cent. of the entire number the past year. The average compensation for male teachers last year was $49.98 and $40.51 for females. This is a slight increase over the previous year.

The enrollment in the private schools for the year is given as 1,093,876. By the addition of pupils in elementary schools, academies, institutions for higher education, evening schools, business schools, private kindergartens, Indian schools, state schools and schools for defective orphans, the grand total of 18,187,918 pupils is reported. The report estimates that the average schooling given to each inhabitant in 1870 was 672 days and in 1903, 1,034 days.

The report shows that last year 1,578,632 colored children were enrolled in the common schools for that race in the former 16 slave states and the District of Columbia. The enrollment in 1877, the first year statistics were taken of the colored schools, was 571,506. Since 1876, it is estimated that $130,000,000 has been expended in the education of the colored children in the former slave states, and nearly six hundred million dollars for the same purpose for the white children of the same section.

Ninety-six reform schools are recorded, with 31,468 inmates, 21,603 of whom are leading useful trades.

THE NASH FUNERAL.

Extreme Simplicity Marked the Last Sad Rites.

Columbus, O., Oct. 31.—Extreme simplicity marked the last rites over the body of the late George Kibben Nash, former governor of Ohio, Sunday. The body lay in state in the Broad Street Presbyterian church for more than an hour preceding the funeral and several thousand people viewed the features of the dead jurist and statesman.

The state officers and the trustees of all the state institutions located in Columbus attended the services, which were held in the church at 2 p. m. There was a great number of floral pieces, the tributes of friends and organizations. Rev. S. S. Palmer, pastor of the Broad Street church, read the Presbyterian burial service and offered prayer.

"Nearer, My God, to Thee" was sung by the Columbus Glee club. The burial at Green Lawn cemetery was private.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
ALTON BROOKS PARKER
of New York.

For Vice President,
HENRY G. DAVIS of West Virginia.

For Congress,
JAMES N. KEHOE of Mason County.

Weather Forecast

Fair to-night and Tuesday.

One week from to-morrow and the battle will be on. Make a resolution to day that you will vote early and urge your neighbor to do likewise. The only danger in Kentucky is the universal belief that the Democrats have a walk over.

JUDGE PARKER'S exposure of the Republican National Committee's bold scheme of black-mailing corporations has stirred up the animals. Senator Knox, successor to Quay, is out in a vigorous denial, evidently inspired, if not actually written by the President.

The last week of the campaign finds both parties lined up for the battle of the ballots and the Democrats confident of victory. They have every reason to be confident. Things have been turning to the Democratic candidates with a whirl the past ten days. It looks now as though the labor vote of the country would go to Parker and Davis in a solid phalanx. The extraordinarily heavy registration in all the great cities of the North, the great centers of population, where the working man lives, where the wage earner works and makes his living by the sweat of his brow and where the increased cost of living and no increase in wages makes it doubly hard to make both ends meet, is an indication that the Democratic party will reap the benefits of this large increase in the registered vote. The average voter is tired of voting to uphold a party in power that gives to the criminal trusts of the country the right to run all other people out of business and then rob the people by putting up prices so that the average man can not buy. If he is not tired of it, then he is just a plain, common, everyday idiot and ought to be robbed. The indications are that he will not be robbed any longer if his vote will help him to get rid of the robbers.

PARKER ON ORGANIZED LABOR.

Judge Parker has ever been a friend of labor. His decisions on the New York bench have been uniformly in favor of the right of workmen to organize and protect themselves against scab labor and against the oppressions of employer. In a famous opinion in the case of the National Protective Association vs. Cummings he laid down this broad principle: "While I purpose to take the broader ground, which I deem fully justified by the principles quoted, as well as the authorities, that the defendants had the right to strike for any reason they deemed a just one, and further, had the right to notify their employer of their purpose to strike, I am unable to see how it is possible to deny the right of these defendant organizations and their members to refuse to work with non-members, when, in the event of injury by the carelessness of such co-employees, the burden would have to be borne by the injured, without compensation from the employer and with no financial responsibility, as a general rule, on the part of those causing the injury; for it is well known that some men, even in the presence of danger, are perfectly reckless of themselves and careless of the rights of others, with the result that accidents are occurring almost constantly which snuff out the lives of workmen as if they were candles, or leave them to struggle through life maimed and helpless. These careless, reckless men are known to their associates, who not only have the right to protect themselves from such men, but, in the present state of the law, it is their duty, through their organizations, to attempt to do it as to the trades affording special opportunities for mischief arising from recklessness.

"I know it is said in another opinion in this case that 'workmen cannot dictate to employers how they shall carry on their business, nor whom they shall or shall not employ; but I dissent absolutely from that proposition, and assert that, so long as workmen must assume all the risk of injury that may come to them through the carelessness of co-employees, that have the moral and legal right to say that they will not work with certain men, and the employer must accept their dictation or go without their services."

Persons who were unable to register on account of sickness or absence from the city on regular registration day can register at the County Clerk's office to-day, to-morrow or Wednesday.

THE NEW MAN ON HORSEBACK.

Vote to Keep Kehoe.

The pensioners of this district have never had a more useful and helpful member of Congress than Mr. Kehoe. He is the son of a Union soldier who was killed in the service, leaving his widow with seven small children to bring up. So that beyond his strong sense of duty to his constituents, Mr. Kehoe has an inspiring sentiment to spur him to even greater efforts for the old soldiers and their dependent ones. Vote to keep Kehoe in Congress and your interests in this as well as in all other matters will be earnestly looked after.—Big Sandy News.

A Bitter Pill.

Bourbon News: "Paris will soon have free mail delivery, and at the same time three colored mail carriers, if reports from some of the officials are correct. A list of six names have been sent to Postmaster Sweeney for him to select from. Four out of the six are negroes, having received the highest marks in the civil service examination, and if the Postmaster goes according to the law in the case, the negroes will receive the places over the white applicants. This will be a bitter pill for the efficient and capable young men who applied for these positions. It will also cause trouble, for the whites do not want them. This will be but a sample of what the Republican party forces on the Southern people."

Don't go into the field with a gun until the 15th of November. If you do it is the duty of the Game Warden and his deputies, if these officers have yet been appointed in this county, to confiscate the gun and present you to the courts. The State of Kentucky stands behind the Game Warden.

The M. E. Church, South, was filled long before the hour for the union service Sunday. Mr. Acheson spoke on the subject, "The Place and Power of the Young Men's Christian Association." KEHOE AT LOUISA.

Tells the People What is the True Issue and How Best to Meet It.

Hon. James N. Kehoe, candidate for re-election to Congress from this district, was in Louisa Monday and spoke to a very large and intelligent audience at the court house. Every seat was occupied, says the Big Sandy News, dozens of chairs having been brought in and every foot of standing space was utilized. It was an audience of more than ordinary intelligence, and it gave undivided attention to the distinguished speaker while he calmly and dispassionately, but very forcibly and eloquently, discussed the vital issues of the day, the momentous questions of the hour. If there was any present who came to hear any one vilified, abused or misrepresented he went away disappointed. The speech was a clear cut, logical presentation of the subjects now before the American voter, and we thought as we listened to our honored Representative that he had never, in our midst at least, spoken so well. It was not a speech made to "tickle the ears of the groundlings," neither was it an appeal to the passion of the fanatic.

Mr. Kehoe is no evangel of hate. He came to the people whom he has so well represented in Congress, telling them what is from his point of view the true issue to be met and how best to meet it. Every statement he made, every conclusion drawn was backed and supported by an array of facts and figures which could not be controverted, and the impression this sort of speech makes on the kind of audience which listened to Mr. Kehoe Monday is surely deep, lasting and favorable. The talk was interspersed throughout with many a pleasantry and apt story, never coarse and unfit, as political jokers are prone to be, and his auditors were sorry that a remote appointment for the next day compelled the gentleman to close his speech so soon.

"Now is the time to look out for fool election bets," says the Cincinnati Post. "The crop to date is rather slow, but it will improve. There will be the man who won't shave off his whiskers until Swallow is elected President on the Brewers' Alliance ticket, and the one who will shave off one side of his mustache if so-and-so is not a winner. Then the street crowds will be entertained by the chump who wheels another in a wheelbarrow, or who rolls a barrel up the public landing."

Special Election Notice.

At the general election on Tuesday, November 8th, 1904, during the regular hours thereof, and by the regular officers thereof, an election will be held in the several precincts of Mason County outside of the city of Maysville, on the question of creating an indebtedness of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for the purpose of erecting a new County Infirmary Building. Said election on said question will be held pursuant to an order of the Mason Fiscal Court, at its special session August 23rd, 1904, and which said order is as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the question of creating an indebtedness of $25,000 for the purpose of erecting a new County Infirmary Building for Mason County be submitted to the qualified voters of Mason County outside of the city of Maysville at the next November, 1904, election to determine the sense of said voters on the said question in the following form to be printed on the ballot as required by law: "Are you in favor of Mason County outside of the city of Maysville creating an indebtedness of $25,000 for the purpose of erecting a new County Infirmary Building?"

Second—In event of said question being carried as required by law, the bonds of the said county shall issue for the said sum to-wit: for twenty-five thousand dollars which shall be evidenced by 50 bonds of the par value of $500 each, due and payable within twenty years and shall bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and which bonds shall be secured by a pledge of the said County Infirmary property and of the funds collected for the payment thereof.

Third—That the proceeds of the said bonds shall be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in this order.

Fourth—That this court shall provide for the collection of a Sinking Fund Tax sufficient to pay the interest and for the payment thereof, within the term for which the bonds shall be issued or sooner if desired by the Fiscal Court of Mason County, but not in any event within the term of ten years, provided that the said Sinking Fund Tax shall be levied only on property which is now taxable for County Infirmary purposes in Mason County.
